MORNING TEA

In the Parish Centre today after the 10am Mass. All welcome.

Sad News

Paul Dwyer passed away during the holidays. Paul taught Education-in-faith to children who were not at Catholic schools. He had been doing this great work for many years with the children from Our Lady Star of the Sea and St Mark. May he rest in peace. Thank you to Paul and his family.

St Vincent De Paul Society

Our heartfelt thanks to all St Mark's parishioners for your constant generosity in giving food and monetary donations to help the less fortunate in our wider community.

For the year ending in December we have delivered 261 food parcels. Assisted 419 adults and 577 children, which comes to a grand total of 996 people.

Thanks also to our volunteers at the Flat Bush shop. They spent 1,440 hours there. Without your help we would be unable to continue helping the less fortunate. May God continue to bless you all, yours in Christ.
